- iii. Brief Report:

The main aim of yoga is Self -realization of oneself from all worldly desires to attain ultimate spiritual enlightenment. According to Hatha-Yoga the union of flow of Prana life force or universal energy) andapana (descending energy) is called yoga. The life core of yoga is elevating the kundalini (serpant power) at the base of the spine which starts from Mooladhara or basic chakra and exerts upwards to the top of the head through sahasrara or crown chakra.

Yoga is specifically a spiritual discipline which focuses on providing total harmony between body and mind. It is an art and science of living healthier and happy life. This word Yoga came from the roots of Sanskrit Yuj which means to "connect" or "to yoke to" "integrate or unite". Based on Yogic scriptures or practice the Yoga signs specifically enhancing the union of individual consciousness with that of the universal consciousness which representing a perfect harmony between the body and mind or human being and nature. The person who experiences the magic of Yoga is termed as a Yogi, having remained in the state of freedom which is called as Mukti, Moksha, or Nirvana. The main objective of Yoga is to live with freedom in all phases of life, health, and harmony between body and mind.
